..... Many more biographies in Congress Archives, Biography Database, Freedom Fighters of Karnataka, and Women of Freedom Struggle

This is just some of the information available to us through the Timeless Theater Archives, and not a complete list of great freedom fighters. As time goes by, we will add more biographies. We understand that Freedom for India was won after the sacrifice of millions and regret that we are not able to represent their contribution satisfactorily.

Sardar Bhagat Singh (1907 - 1931)

Family of Patriots

Bhagat Singh was born in a Sikh family of farmers in the village of Banga of Lajalpur district of Punjab (now in Pakistan) on September 27th of 1907. His family stood for patriotism, reform, and freedom of the country. His grandfather Arjun Singh was drawn to Arya Samaj, a reformist movement of Hinduism, and took keen interest in proceedings of the Indian National Congress. Bhagat Singh's father Kishen Singh and uncle Ajit Singh were members of Ghadr Party founded in the U.S. in early years of this century to route British rule in India. Both were jailed for alleged anti-British activities. Ajit Singh had 22 cases against him and was forced to flee to Iran. Thereafter he went to Turkey, Austria, Germany and finally to Brazil to escape Black Water (Kalapani) punishment for his revolutionary activities in India.
