

Home Page

The screenshot shows the homepage of the English Literature Dictionary & Glossary for students. At the top left is the ITS logo with the tagline "IF IT'S EDUCATION, IT'S ITS" and "Pathways To Learning". Below this is the text "Hong Kong Registered School 559985 & 500733". Navigation links include "Hong Kong Education", "Online Education", "Additional Services", and "Resources". The main heading is "English Literature Dictionary & Glossary for students". Below this is a portrait of a man and the text "The ABC of English Literature". A welcome message states: "Welcome to possibly the most comprehensive English Literature related dictionary on the internet for students". Below the welcome message is a prompt: "Choose the initial letter of the term you wish to visit and click on it." followed by a row of letters: "A B C D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W X Y Z". On the right side, there is a "Select Language" dropdown, "Powered by Google Translate", and a button for "ONLINE SCHOOL WEBSITE". Below this are social media icons for Facebook, Google+, and LinkedIn. Further down, there are sections for "English Tuition" and "Complete your A-levels or iGCSE at ITS Online School".

LogoURL

<http://www.itseducation.asia/english-literature/>

Subject

English literature - Dictionaries

Accessibility

Free

Language

English

Publisher

ITS Education Asia

Scope and Coverage

This dictionary is a comprehensive source of definitions for terms related to English literature. It covers a wide range of terms, concepts and theories related to English literature. A brief biography of many well known authors has also been included. Over 850 terms are defined. This dictionary is primarily aimed at supporting secondary/senior/high school and early tertiary students who are studying English literature or related subjects. The definitions of terms and concepts that have been included are most of the major subject specific words that students will come across when studying English literature at senior high school. First year undergraduates may also find it a useful reference point for topic areas that they did not cover at secondary/senior/high school.

Kind of Information

Meanings and definitions of different terms related to English literature (e.g. acronymy , act , action, actor, adaptation, etc.) are present here. All terms in this dictionary are cross referenced and linked for ease of use. The cross linked terms open in a new page so that students can fully understand the definition or concept that is being explained. Short definitions and descriptions of terms are available here. See, see also reference are also available here.

Some examples are given below for clear understanding.

adjective: A word that is used to modify a noun or pronoun, usually to give a descriptive meaning. For example ‘shiny’ and ‘scary’.

allusion: A casual reference to any aspect of another piece of literature, art, music, person or life in general. Authors suppose that the reader will identify the original source and relate the meaning to the new context. An example of allusion is TS. Eliot's The Waste Land. See intertextuality.

alternate rhyme: See rhyming couplets.

anastrophe: See syntax.

Special Features

- ❖ One may print definitions for personal use as a student or teacher without any permission but authority do ask that these print-outs give the URL as the source.
- ❖ One can add a term to this dictionary / glossary through specific HTML code as provided in site. Either by sending definitions or request that the dictionary would define the term for the users, new words can be added.
- ❖ Links to various social networking sites like Facebook, Twitter etc. are found.
- ❖ Links to other dictionaries of ITS Education (like Accounting, Business Studies and Economics Dictionary for students, English Literature Dictionary / Glossary for Students , Geography Dictionary / Glossary for Students etc.) are also available here.

- ❖ Quotations of famous persons are also seen like “Books are the carriers of civilization. Without books, history is silent, literature dumb, science crippled, thought and speculation at a standstill.”

--- Barbara W. Tuchman

Arrangement Pattern Entries are arranged alphabetically. Under an alphabet the entries which start with that particular alphabet are also arranged alphabetically. For an example mention may be made of macronic text, magic realism, malapropism , mainstream, Man Booker Prize, manuscript , marginalia which come under the alphabet “M”.

Remarks This online dictionary is one of the most comprehensive dictionaries of English literature over the Internet for students and others everywhere. For getting brief information instantly on English literature related terms this online dictionary plays a vital role.

Comparable Tools

- The Oxford Dictionary of Literary Terms
(<http://www.oxfordreference.com/view/10.1093/acref/9780199208272.001.0001/acref-9780199208272>)
- Literary Vocabulary
(http://web.cn.edu/kwheeler/lit_terms.html)

Date of Access June 28, 2016