Publisher BirdSites.net

Brief History Subject to research

Scope and Coverage BirdSites.net is a human-edited bird directory for both pet and wild bird sites. Here anyone can find birding resources and supplies, pet birds, pet bird supplies, bird husbandry info, birding vacations and more.

Kind of Information Mainly the categories which can be seen in this site are art & gifts, bird species, birding - wild birds, birding resources, birding vacations & tours, birds, birds for sale, bird breeders, classifieds, conservation, directories, bird forums, bird health, organizations, bird magazines, pet birds, pet bird supplies, bird rescue & sanctuaries & bird photography etc.

Generally all the categories include some website links with their brief description.

'Bird species' category provides information on a variety of bird categories. Under each of the species, respective websites (which contain information on that species particularly) are given with brief description and links. As for example, after clicking on Parrots the following result can be seen :

The screenshot shows search results for 'The Parrot Club' and 'Eclectus Parrots'. The first result is 'The Parrot Club' with the description 'A new and friendly parrot forum for owners of all parrots to chat and exchange information.' Below this is a preview of the website featuring a banner for 'Eclectus Parrots Australia' with several colorful parrots. The second result is 'Eclectus Parrots' with the description 'An informative Eclectus Parrots website & forum.' Below this is a preview of the Bravenet website interface, showing navigation links like 'HOME', 'SITE BUILDING', 'HOSTING', 'DOMAINS', and 'MAILBOX SERVICES', and a section for 'Available Website' with 'Site Building and Hosting Solutions'.

This directory provides information on two featured bird sites :

- Bird Watching.net and
- Somerzby

Brief information on the above two sites are provided including the screenshots of their home pages and their hyperlinks.

Latest Bird Links are given including their short description, category and date of addition of those sites in Bird Sites Directory. Example is shown as follows :

Latest articles are also provided with links. Such as “tips on keeping your parrot healthy” is provided as one of the articles.

Information are also provided on how to submit a site and site submission form also provided including guidelines.
