JAIPUR

ABOUT THE PLACE

As the capital of Rajasthan, Jaipur looks no different from other Indian metropolises. But once you get into the older part of the town, it's like traveling backwards on a time machine. There is so much to see in Jaipur.

The city was planned by a Bengali architect Bidyadhar Bhattacharya under the patronage of Rana Sawai Jaisingh in the year 1727. Abundance of pink-hued mansions adds a new dimension to the city's character making it popular as Pink City.

HOW TO REACH

Airport: Jaipur airport is about 15 km from the city.
Rail: Jaipur is directly connected with Delhi, Calcutta, Agra, Abu Road, Bikaner, Jodhpur and Udaipur.
Road: Major distances:
Delhi 259 km
Agra 228 km
Udaipur 405 km
Jodhpur 336 km
Sawai Madhopur 157 km

Rajasthan State Transport Corporation operates deluxe buses (from Platform No. 3 of the main bus station) to most tourist destinations in the state as well as to Delhi.

BEST TIME TO VISIT

November to March is pleasant. December-January is definitely the best time to go; nights can be quite cold in winter.
