Scope and Coverage

A directory which links to all branches of federal, state, and local governments and court resources. The local government directory breaks down each state by counties and cities (townships, villages, etc.). Over 17,000 federal, state, and local governmental links are presents in this database.

Kind of Information

This site provides access to govt. information of U.S like federal govt., federal courts, state govt., state courts, local govt. etc. In this site a map of U.S is given with name (shorter form) of a state that is linked here. Users can select a particular state from this site to access govt. information. Such as.....

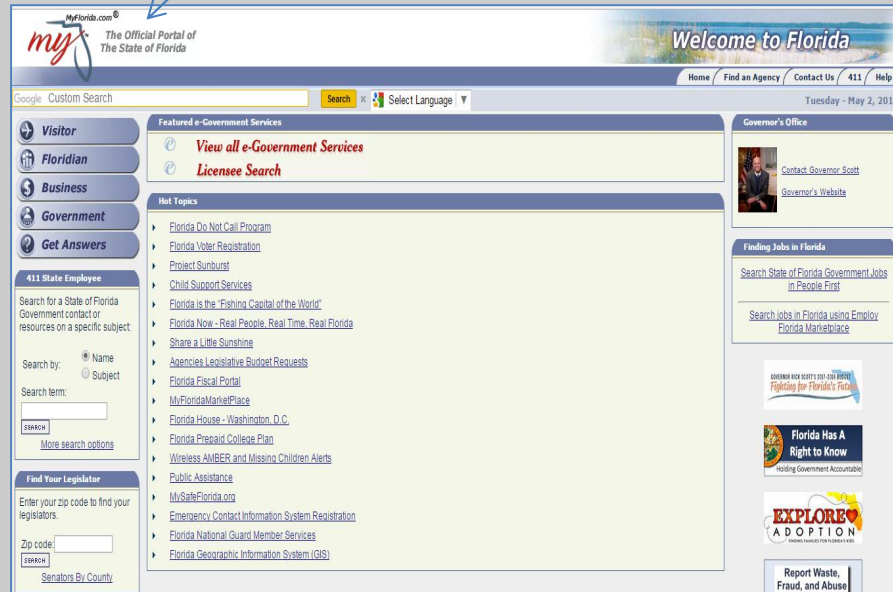

From the US map, FL is selected here as for example. After selecting it, users comes to know that FL means Florida. The State GOvt.- Florida has some categories of information. They are State Home Page & Constitution, Legislative Branch , Judicial Branch , Executive Branch, and State Resources. All these categories are sub-divided into sub-categories of information. These sub-categories holds govt. Information about it. Each of them are linked to their home page. Users can access information from each sub-category or link after selecting it.

As for example the catrgory State Home Page & Constitution is selected here. This has two sub-categories or links. From them State of Florida is selected and after selection it is seen that it directs to the Official Portal of State of Florida.

State Home Page & Constitution

- State of Florida
- Constitution for the State of Florida

Similar method is applicable for accessing other information.
