

Home Page

National Library He Tohu Te Puna Foundation

Visit Collections Services Events About

Home > Collections > A-Z > Photographic Archive

Photographic Archive

Search collection

The Photographic Archive holds images of New Zealand and the Pacific from the 1850s to the present. It includes around 5 million prints, negatives, transparencies and other photographic formats.

The Photographic Archive forms part of the Alexander Turnbull Library collections. It was started in the late 1930s and continues to grow as a visual record of New Zealand and its people.

The Archive holds photographs taken by professional photographers as well as the work of ordinary New Zealanders who have documented their lives, families and communities.

The collection is strong in the following areas:

- Māori life, people and activities
- cities and towns of New Zealand
- the New Zealand Wars
- New Zealanders in the two World Wars and other international conflicts
- Samoa, Tonga, Fiji, Cook Islands and other parts of the Pacific
- Antarctica and the Sub-Antarctic Islands, including the expeditions of Scott, Shackleton and the Ross Sea Committee
- photographs from the Evening Post, Dominion, The Press, and other newspapers

Caring for your collections >

A-Z v

Using the collections >

Donations >

Music Hire service >

Born digital 2016 >

Logo*URL

<https://natlib.govt.nz/collections/a-z/photographic-archive>

Subject

New Zealand – Photograph collections – Archives
New Zealand – Images

Accessibility

Free (Requires an approval to purchase for a high resolution download which can take up to 10 working days.)

Language

English

Publisher

National Library of New Zealand

Brief History

The Photographic Archive forms part of the Alexander Turnbull Library collections. It was started in the late 1930s and continues to grow as a visual record of New Zealand and its people.

Scope and Coverage

The Photographic Archive holds images of New Zealand and the Pacific from the 1850s to the present. It includes around 5 million prints, negatives, transparencies and other photographic formats.

Kind of Information

The Archive holds photographs taken by professional photographers as well as the work of ordinary New Zealanders who have documented their lives, families and communities.

The collection is strong in the following areas:

- Māori life, people and activities
- cities and towns of New Zealand
- the New Zealand Wars
- New Zealanders in the two World Wars and other international conflicts
- Samoa, Tonga, Fiji, Cook Islands and other parts of the Pacific
- Antarctica and the Sub-Antarctic Islands, including the expeditions of Scott, Shackleton and the Ross Sea Committee
- photographs from the Evening Post, Dominion, The Press, and other newspapers
- prominent New Zealand photographers of the 19th and 20th centuries, including Daniel Beere, Tyree Studio, Leslie Adkin, John Pascoe, Ans Westra, Samuel Carnell, Irene Koppel and William James Harding
- portraits of New Zealanders from all walks of life, representing many ethnic and social groups.

Users can send a request to order a copy or send an enquiry after open an image. Details of the images are provided with Example of an image from this site,

Order copy

Send an enquiry

Places
Marlborough Sounds

Record types
Negatives

Ship Wakanui in the Marlborough Sounds

Date: Jan 1958
Ref: EP/1958/1325-F
Photograph taken for the Evening Post newspaper of Wellington by an unidentified staff photographer.
Quantity: 1 b&w original negative(s)
Physical Description: Cellulosic film negative, 6.5 x 6.5 cm
Access restrictions: Partly restricted - Please use surrogate in place of original

Special Features

- ❖ Search this site for descriptions of items in the Photographic Archive. Not all items are described online. If anyone can't find what they are looking for, they can ask a librarian.
- ❖ Basic and advanced both search facilities are there to search the archives.
- ❖ Images can be filtered in different ways, such as, by subject, by date, by creator.

Arrangement Pattern

Images are arranged categorically. A chronological order is also there where users filter their search by date.

Remarks

It archives photographs from New Zealand and the Pacific from the 1850s to the present. So who have the interests on New Zealand can use this site for the images.

Users can copy any item for personal use, share it, and post it on a blog or website. It cannot be used commercially without permission; users can ask them for advice. If reproducing any item, please maintain the integrity of the image (i.e. don't crop, recolour or overprint it).

Comparable Tools

- Pictures collection of National Library of Australia (<https://www.nla.gov.au/what-we-collect/pictures>)

Date of Access

April 19, 2017